Backus to Dean—A small daughter of Vin. Backus, of Perle Oak, was playing around the fire at her home last week, when her clothing ignited and she was burned to death. Her remains were buried in Mt. Sterling.

Heart, C. Turner, aged 31, of Mt. Sterling, died at 3:30, on Thursday. He was a son of late Col. Thomas Turner, and was widely known to this section. He was a brother of Judge Eugene Turner, editor of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel Democrat.

Circuit Court order—The February term of Circuit Court for Bath county was held on Monday. The docket was as follows: 48 and 11 new equity cases; 14 common law cases; 10 misdemeanors; 31 attack suits; 4 rules and 4 forfeited bail.

Head Post Mark Deceased—Marshall Wm. F. Mack, deceased, was from the authorities at Chepate, Minn., that he had been Lee Duncan, of color, but had not accepted him. Duncan is still under the charge of robbing John McKinley's house about four years ago. Mack will probably go after Duncan.

Henry, 8 year old son of John M. Elliott and wife, formerly of Mt. Sterling, now of Pleasant Hill, Mo., died last week of diphtheria. Another son, Robert, died a few weeks ago of the same disease. These are relatives of the Elliotts here and are well known to Bath county people.

Court Graded—The county graduates' examination was held here Jan. 26 and 27. Clay City and Elwood N. S. Spill and Willie Bates School successfully passed. This speaks well for their teachers, Elmer Lott, Quisenberry, and John Lott, who will strive to prepare their pupils, and give them a better education.

Miss Mary Wolf—A gentleman from Hillsboro sent on the following letter to his wife:

My dear wife, I have just received the letter from you, and I am very glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this letter will find you the same.

Mrs. Elias H. from the home of town, to her parents, in Lexington, Ky., moved to the Doyle property in the eastern suburbs.

For at Paxton—The general merchandise store of A. and B. Barnes at Paxton closed its general store at a defective fire, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The store was all the goods were consumed.

The postoffice was in the same building, but all of it was saved. The loss is about $2,500, partially covered by insurance.

Watkins May Be Issued—John Watkins, the Lexington sugar mill here charged with killing Wm. Mullins, a white man, at Midland City, about a month ago, has been getting strangely for several days and is believed by many to be insane.

Watkins walks the floor of his cell constantly, groans and grunts in a horrible manner, but little and sleeps rarely. If he is shamming, he is putting up a good article. Watkins is plainly of the lower order of his race and has never seemed to realize the predicament he is in.

Means Ratified—At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lou Ratliff, in this city, Thursday morning, Miss Ann Elizabeth Ratliff was united in marriage to Mr. Ben Myer, of Cincinnati. Rev. J. R. McWhorter officiated.

The bride is a handsome and pretty young lady and quite popular. The groom is a fine business man and is now holding a position with the Standard Oil Company. The young couple left on the 5:30 train for Cincinnati, where they will reside. The best wishes of a host of friends follow them.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel Democrat.

Contract for Gas Lines—A meeting of the City Council last night of last week, at the City of Lexington, Ky., was held to consider a contract for gas lines.

Narrow Escape—W. P. Spradley, the wholesale liquor dealer, had a narrow escape from death, by an explosion only Sunday morning. The natural gas pipes in the basement of his residence on West Second street burst Sunday night. The escaping fluid filled the house and by good fortune, no one was hurt.

County, Ky., and I have my active life. State and South Dakota has been chosen for the coming year. C. H. Bailey.

Sunday Law Violations—Developments came thick and fast in the Sunday closing of last week. Wednesday morning, Judge N. Reid Patterson was brought up for trial before City Judge W. C. Poweron on the charge of selling goods Sunday week in violation of the closing law. Patterson attended to his business.

On a hanging jury—A trial was later continued until Tuesday of this week. Markland was arrested with Judge Patterson, a six days' charge. Markland clerk for Patterson in the store formerly owned by John W. S. Land.

Wednesday afternoon Samuel P. Atchison, the druggist, who purchased the property from the Markland, was arrested, charged with selling on Sunday. He confessed to selling Saturday morning and was fined $2 and costs.

Controversy Over School—A controversy is being waged between the townspeople and farmers of the township over the establishment of a public graded school there. The townspeople are strongly in favor of the school, while the farmers are strongly against it. An election was called for Feb. 20, when the question will be voted on.

When the farmers learned this they prepared a petition signed by fifteen of them protesting against the school on the grounds of the high tax assessment that would have to be levied for its support and threatening to withdraw their custom from the Shاربurg merchants.

The merchants were alarmed and the townspeople were determined to see the school built. The proposition was made to the township board of trustees to raise a fund of $10,000 for the purpose of erecting a new school building there. This proposition was made at a meeting held at Shاربurg Tuesday.

When the school was built, the townspeople would be able to pay the tax on the school property. The proposition was made to the township board of trustees to raise a fund of $10,000 for the purpose of erecting a new school building there.
